- 16.1.1 At least sixty(60) days prior to the opening date of the Congress, the Secretary General shall inform all Member Federations of the positions that are due for election and shall invite nominations for those positions, to close with President, no later than at least 30 days prior to the first day of the Congress. The closing time and date shall be clearly specified.
- 16.1.2 In regard to the calling of nominations, as outlined above, the following shall be the nomination procedure:
- Nominations can only be made by National Federation(see Clause 16.1.3).
 - A National Federation has the right to nominate one person for any elected position. Nominations may be made for more than one position.
 - All nominations shall be in writing and must clearly state the position, or positions, for which a person or persons is being nominated.
 - The nomination must include the name of the nominating Member Federation and must be signed by the President of that National Federation.
 - The nomination must include a statement by the person being nominated that he or she is willing to be elected and will abide by the BFA Constitution, Rules and Regulations, both during the election process and in the event that person shall be elected.
- 16.1.3 Only Member Federations in good financial standing with the BFA may nominate a person for election. To be in good financial standing, a Member Federation must be a current financial member with no fees or dues outstanding prior to the year of the elections, or have a prior written agreement with the BFA concerning the payment of outstanding fees or dues. Furthermore, such a Member Federation must not be under suspension or disqualification.
- 16.1.4 In the case where no nominations have been received in accordance with this Constitution, or where a nominee withdraws his or her nomination, thereby resulting in no nomination existing for a particular position, the Election Chairman of the Congress shall call for nominations from the Congress for that position.
- 16.1.5 Once nominations for that position have been received from the Congress, the election procedures outlined above shall continue.

Clause 16.2 Elections

- 16.2.1 The President shall nominate a suitable independent person of stature as Election Chairman to conduct the election process during the Congress immediately following the Olympic Games. The following procedures shall apply in regard to the election of the following officials.
- President {one position}
 - Vice Presidents {three positions}
 - Executive Members {three positions}

Clause 16.3

- 16.3.1 The Election Chairman shall call for nominations for each position in the order as specified above. Any delegate may nominate a person for a position with reference to 16.1.3 & 16.1.4
- 16.3.2 Each position shall be filled before calling for nominations for the next position.

Clause 16.4

The Election Chairman shall accept any nomination, provided the person nominated accepts the nomination.

- 16.4.1 If only one nomination is received, the nominee shall be declared elected.
- 16.4.2 Upon receipt of all nominations, the Election Chairman shall distribute to each member present a ballot paper. Any ballot paper bearing more than one name shall be informal and rejected.

Clause 16.5

The 3 Vice Presidents and 3 Executive members shall be voted on at the same time on the same ballot paper instead of individually, as there are no ranking differences.

16.5.1 In order to be eligible to vote a Member Federation must be in good financial standing in accordance with Clause 16.1.3 of this Constitution.

Clause 16.6

The Election Chairman shall collect the ballot papers, count the votes and announce the results.

Clause 16.7

16.7.1 A candidate shall be elected when that candidate receives a majority exceeding 50% of the votes cast.

16.7.2 After 3 votes casted and a candidate does not receive more than 50% of the votes in the assembly, the 4th cast will just declare the candidate with the most votes elected.

16.7.3 In the case where there are two candidates remaining and, if after three ballots, a result is not obtained, the election shall be determined by the toss of a coin.

Clause 16.8

The Election Chairman shall announce each result as it is achieved.
